

2012 Hayward Neighborhood Leadership Academy

This year's Theme is:

Neighborhood Survival!

SAVE-THE-DATE:

Saturday, June 9, 2012 - (8:30 to 8:45 Registration) - to 3pm

Hayward City Hall - 777 B Street - Hayward, CA.

Building on the series of Book-to-Action events now being conducted by the Hayward Library, and utilizing lessons learned that are described in the book: A Paradise Built in Hell by Rebecca Solnit, the Neighborhood Leadership Academy will provide participants information and opportunities to:

Learn Personal Emergency Preparedness

Develop "Neighborhood Survival" Action Plans

Organize Neighborhood Watch and other Neighborhood Improvement Initiatives

Strengthen our Hayward Community

Learn How You Can Join In!

California Reads Book-to-Action series:
A Paradise Built in Hell by Rebecca Solnit.

BROCHURE » (Contact Hayward Library at: 510-293-8685)

Entry Fee:

The cost of attending this event is a donation of (at least) one can of food, in support of the Alameda County Food Bank. The more cans that you bring, the greater chance you will have to win valuable door prizes – and most important, more people in need will be fed.

RSVP Required: Please provide name and contact information to:

David Korth, Neighborhood Services Manager

777 B Street, Hayward, California

(510) 583-4227 / Email: david.korth@hayward-ca.gov